4. To consider and approve further planting schemes for Lissett and Ulrome. To include discussions with Karen Binks and Rose Fisher:

Planting schemes were discussed in both villages. The Chair had a list of approved plants from ERYC and reported on recent discussions with Andy Harper from ERYC.

The grant funding details were discussed.

Lissett: shrubs are to be planted in the triangles at the junction of the A165 and Fisher Lane. Dwarf varieties will be used so as not to impair the sight line of traffic, eg, potentilla, ceanothis, burberry, dwarf buddleia. Possibility of a contractor removing the grass was discussed.

Ulrome:

Pumping Station – shrubs to be planted to cling to the fence.

Triangle – replace the silver birch on the triangle near the pond.

Decking near pond – cast iron square planters between the benches or at either end, planted up with shrubs and cordyline. Plants to be container grown to give Karen and Rose are to undertake a walkabout and cost out shrubs, planters, bark chippings and labour costs.

There will be a further planting meeting at 6 pm prior to the next Parish Council meeting on 29th July 2015.
